REA Sponsors Demonstration

Activities at the REA Co-op began last week with a laundry party at the Co-op office Tuesday night sponsored by W. A. McDonald and Sons. Seventy-two people attended the party which was for the purpose of demonstrating the Westinghouse laundry equipment and range. The feature of the evening was two humorous films of family life built around the use of Westinghouse electric laundry equipment. A demonstration on laundry was given by Miss June Goske, of Columbus, Ohio, consultant for the department "All".

Also present were E. H. Lazek, regional representative for Westinghouse, Charles Gluck, Westinghouse representative for the New Orleans office.

The following day eighteen pupils of the 9th and 10th grades of Kiln High School spent the morning at the Co-op office where Mrs. Loyette Webb prepared a meal in the electric range and another in the deep well water. While these were cooking the group visited the laundry where a demonstration of proper methods of doing electric laundry was given. In the afternoon the group was shown the laundry of a chamber pillow and a chenille spread. When the meal was ready the group was seated at correctly set tables covered with linen cloths. Linen napkins were laid at the luncheon which was then served and hummed by the pupils.

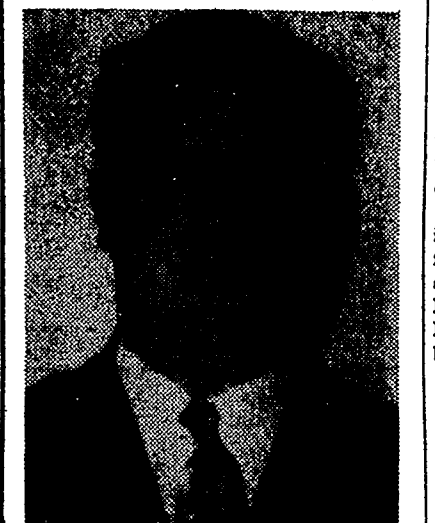

Miss Louise Milner of Gulfport who has been spending a week at the Co-op office on field demonstrations as part of her student training at Mississippi Southern where she is working toward a degree in Home Economics, assisted Mrs. Webb.

Ensign Roger M. Boh, Jr. Receives Navy "Wings" at Pensacola, Fla. NAS

Pensacola, Fla., Feb. 9—Navy wings of gold now adorn the uniform of Ensign Roger M. Boh of the United States Navy. Having successfully completed his flight training, he was designated a Naval Aviator yesterday during ceremonies at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida.

Ensign Boh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger M. Boh, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, graduated from the US Naval Academy in June of 1949 and served with the fleet for four months. He began his active flight training in Oct. 1949 when he reported to the US Naval School, pre-flight, at NAS Pensacola, where he completed a strenuous schedule in military, academic and physical training. From pre-flight, he was advanced to basic training which consisted of primary, aerobatics, instruments, gunnery and tactics and was climaxed by six take-offs and landings in his SNJ "Texan" trainer aboard the aircraft carrier USS Cabot.

He was then sent to advanced training at Corpus Christi, Texas, for a four month syllabus in combat type aircraft. After this, he returned to Pensacola to qualify aboard the USS Monterey in his combat type aircraft before receiving his wings.

PTA Meeting At Bay High School Tuesday Afternoon

The regular meeting of the Bay Central P-T-A was held in the Bay High auditorium Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. T. T. Robin, vice-president opened the meeting in the absence of Mrs. S. J. Mauffrey who is ill. Mrs. Nelson led the opening prayer.

The Boy's Chorus, led by Mr. Wimberly and accompanied by Miss Temple Perkins sang four selections.

Linda Sue Lee, from the third grade and Beverly Schindler from the fourth grade gave a report of current events. They reported that books had been obtained to start the new room libraries and that a phonograph was to be purchased with the prize money won by the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades with their Carnival float.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald introduced the speaker, Mrs. Charles Storey district chairman from Gulfport.

Mrs. Storey, spoke on "Our Times and Our Tasks." She said that due to the changing times it was imperative to educate all families to understand and accept changes and to direct those changes in the best paths in so far as possible. The P-T-A is endeavoring to do this through a broad program of training of lay leaders. Mississippi this summer has planned a very extensive program of Parent Education and leadership training.

It was decided to have the president appoint a committee to select titles for the carnival parade for next year, to be presented to the membership at the last meeting this year to allow more time in the planning of the floats.

It was voted to send $10 to the state P-T-A as a Founders Day Gift. Mrs. C. C. McDonald outlined a new plan for books to be sent through CARE for the use of children in the elementary grades. She moved that an international book project be established. This was seconded by Mrs. Thomas and it was voted that the books be sent to the children.

The meeting adjourned to the Home Ec. kitchen, where a birthday cake in honor of Founders Day was cut by Mrs. Storey. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of a large red heart holding red carnations and silvered berries. Red mint hearts, birthday cake and coffee were served.

GULF COAST COUNCIL GARDEN CLUBS HOLD MEETING IN BILOXI

The Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs held its quarterly meeting in Biloxi, Friday, Feb. 9, at the auditorium of the First Methodist Church, at 2 p.m. with the Oak Park and Acacia Garden Clubs as hostesses.

The president of the Council, Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, introduced Mrs. S. R. McCall, president of Oak Park Garden Club, who called on Mrs. McCall of Pascagoula to say the opening prayer.

Mrs. Hyle J. Bittner was the guest speaker for the afternoon and spoke on the subject "Science and Gardening," explaining how a successful garden can be produced by propagating plants in water and gravel, called the hydropex system. He illustrated, by means of a blackboard, how water filters and drains into a tank and how chemicals may be added as needed for the nourishment of plants. His talk was most instructive.

Mrs. Mogabgab presided over the business meeting which followed and new officers elected were: president, Mrs. Hyle J. Bittner, of Biloxi; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Dorothy Dennis, Pass Christian; recording secretary, Mrs. T. C. McCall, Biloxi; auditor, Mrs. Henry Wolf, Biloxi; historian, Mrs. D. E. Berry, Pascagoula; parliamentarian, Mrs. E. P. Kirkpatrick, Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Mary Belle Beaman, overall chairman of the Gulf Coast Spring Pilgrimage, made a brief talk and asked for general discussion on the cancellation of the pilgrimage due to world conditions. The president of each of the fourteen clubs represented was called on to express his views on the subject and it was unanimously decided to cancel all preparations entirely, until a more feasible time to hold the Spring Pilgrimage.

Mrs. H. H. Seay won a beautiful plant as an entrance prize and other prizes were won by Mrs. Calvin Baldwin, Mrs. Homer Miller, Mrs. N. W. Newland, Mrs. H. K. Thornton, Mrs. J. P. Rousseau and Mrs. J. H. Perkins.

LITTLE THEATRE GROUP HAS MEETING AT RADFORD HOME

BAY HIGH SENIORS PRESENT NOVEL SHOW IN ASSEMBLY

The seniors of Bay High School under the direction of their sponsor, Mrs. George B. Hall, presented in assembly Feb. 15, one of the most novel programs seen at the school in some time. Fashioned after several popular television "record" shows, the seniors went through the motions while backstage records produced music and voices of celebrities.

The skit, presented as an Arthur Godfrey talent scout show, cast Johnny McCurdy as Arthur Godfrey with Thelma Rouchon and Ruth Dawsey as his assistants. Ann Wilson introduced the talent and gave a short synopsis about their professional backgrounds. Performers on the show were Irma Joan Lee as Patti Page singing "Long Long Ago"; Billy Clapp as Al Jolson singing "Swanee"; Leo Moran, Lawrence Spence, Fern Randolph and Marcella Kingston representing a hill billy band with Kay Starr as featured vocalist singing "I'll Never Be Free"; Bob Huet as Frank Sinatra singing "Supposin'"; Johnny McCurdy as Arthur Godfrey singing "For Me and My Gal"; Truman Schultz and Ann Hebert, a duet composed of Doris Day and Buddy Clark, singing and dancing "Love Somebody"; Ann Kenner as Frankie Lane singing "I'm Gonna Live 'til I Die"; Monvel Maske, Jimmy McArthur, Alton Morel and Donald Luxich as the Ink Spots singing "I Got the Blues When It Rains"; Cecil McCaleb was in charge of the records.

The Board of Directors of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre met at the home of the president, Mrs. Oliver Radford, on Wednesday, Feb. 7. Present were Phil Allison, vice-president; Leo Seal, Jr., and Mrs. Carolyn Kestler; Herbert Wise, and Mrs. John Bell; Mrs. Rene DeMontaigne, John Bell and John Scalfide attended the meeting as members of the committee to select the forthcoming plays for 1951.

An excellent plan for the awarding of Oscars in the future was devised whereby each of the seven members of the Board will have the privilege of choosing three critics. These names will be submitted to the president secretly. Each critic must have seen all six plays and must not be related immediately to any member of a cast. If a critic fails to see even one play he or she will be automatically removed from the duty. The critics will be required to send their selections in to the president, signed and stamped and not to be opened until counted at an open meeting before a committee of three. Through this method there will only be twenty-one selections to be counted at the most, eliminating a most serious waste of time and effort, and the unwelcome practice of soliciting votes.

It is not too soon to begin to think about membership. To the present subscribers the Little Theatre group urges that you send in your fees as soon as possible so the theatre may launch into its forthcoming season. To those of you who are prospective members the theatre extends a friendly welcome. You are asked to consider that it is not only economical to purchase a season ticket but you thereupon become a vital part of a very progressive and important civic institution. Your membership card entitles you to one free play—or better. Each individual play is $1.00 plus tax, whereas as your membership is $5.00 for the season for six plays. This is surely a notable inducement.

The Little Theatre wants to remind newcomers that it is not an exclusive organization. The membership is open to anyone interested in the theatre or in wholesome community entertainment. It is the best way of getting acquainted in your new surroundings. You may contact Mrs. John Bell at 193-W for further information.

B-W GARDEN CLUB MET

The business session followed the program, with Mrs. George Stevenson, president, presiding. It was voted that instead of the budget amount of $5, the Red Cross donation, during war years would be increased to $25 and a check for that amount was given to the Red Cross.

For the convention of State garden clubs in Meridian, to be held in March, Mrs. Stevenson will be delegate from Bay-Waveland and Mrs. Gerald Kennedy, Sr., will be alternate.

NATIONAL MALE QUARTET SERIES

The February 19th presentation of the Gulf Coast Music Series will be held at the Gulfport High School auditorium on Monday, 19th at 8 p.m.

The National Male Quartet who will be held at that time has a reputation which distinguishes them from other similar groups in the country. They sing operatic numbers, American ballads, familiar choruses which are arranged especially for them and selections from the outstanding composers of the modern school. They also vary their straight quartet numbers with trios and duets.

Each member of the quartet has had recognition as an individual artist. Attilio Saggione, tenor, made his operatic debut at the Teatro Real of opera in Rome. Since then he has sung leading roles with the Chicago Opera Co., the Philadelphia La Scala Opera Co., in 1947 and has sung concert, opera, radio-television and on Broadway.

Both Vernon Sanders, baritone and Bruce MacKay, bass, made their operatic debuts with the San Francisco Opera Co. and sang six months of Gilbert and Sullivan repertory there before they headed East.

These four singers have in common their love of ensemble music, and public response has already confirmed their conviction that there is a large audience for the type of music they present. Their varied program presents a full measure of pleasure for every listener and a large group of Bay St. Louisians who are subscribers to the concert series are expected to attend the event.

Later he was rescued by members of the US Naval Intelligence and put on the ship "Ranger" where he spent thirty-four days and served in three battles in the Pacific theatre.

Following this Lt. Heath was sent home and remained in the air force carrier "Midway" in the Atlantic. ### SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By JAMES L. BISHOP
Soil Conservation Service

H. C. Voorhies of Cuevaston Community is preparing 10 acres of steep land for kudzu. Kudzu will be used for grazing during late summer and fall, while other pastures do not receive sufficient moisture to produce good grazing at this time of the year.

R. J. Rouse became a cooperator with the Hancock Soil Conservation District this week. Rouse's farm is located at Necaise crossing and contains 56 acres. Rouse plans to put his level and gentle sloping land in corn and cover crops while the steep land will be developed into pasture and woods.

Soil Conservation Service Technician assisted Rouse to make his farm plan.

Otho Rester planted 6 acres of kudzu this week. Rester planted kudzu on well drained steep land for fall pasture. Rester plans to clean till his kudzu in order for the kudzu to take root and spread faster over the ground for a quick cover.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assisted the following farmers to survey terraces on their farms last week: Theodore Bilbo, Ceasar Community; Isham Lee, Leetown Community, as soon as the stumps are cleared from the fields, terraces will be built.

Contours were surveyed on ten acres of pasture land on H. C. Voorhies' farm in Cuevaston Community this week. Contours will help hold the soil until plants become firmly established and will help to conserve moisture for the pasture plants until summer.

"Is The UN A Failure" Subject of PLWV Debate

Mrs. C. C. McDonald took the positive side and Mrs. John Husband the negative in the discussion at the meeting of the United Nations Study Group of the League of Women Voters held at Mrs. McDonald's home Monday afternoon.

The theme of the debate was "Is the United Nations a Failure." Mrs. McDonald based her argument upon the premise that while the UN had not succeeded in all its objectives it had made definite progress towards the betterment of world conditions and the amelioration of dangerous situations leading to certain future wars.

Mrs. McDonald stated that while the UN had suffered a number of setbacks this was a condition which usually existed in the beginning of any group and the early stages of any organization.

Mrs. Husband's argument stressed the fact that the UN was a failure because it had failed to do the one thing for which it had originally been organized, that is the prevention of war and maintaining of international peace and security, exemplified by the present struggle in Korea and the failure to the group to reach settlements which

A LESSON the Newspaper has NEVER FORGOTTEN

Newspapers, even the biggest of them, all started by being close to the interests, wishes and tastes of the people. They all started small, with limited capital, and those that deserved to grow, grew. Newspapers were not started by tremendous aggregations of wealth in New York or Hollywood with an "idea" to put over or sell. And many of the men who are successfully editing or publishing papers today started as boys—as printer's devils—in a country weekly office.

Newspapers have never forgotten that people want to read news about the people they know—their neighbors. In the Daily Herald you will find news of world and national affairs—but you will also find out about the doings and happenings on your own street and the next block.

The Mississippi law on statements of candidates for office, which was passed by the Legislature in 1950, is being enforced by the State Election Commission.

The law requires that all candidates for office must file a statement of their assets and liabilities with the State Election Commission.

The law also requires that candidates must file a statement of their expenses for the campaign.

The law is designed to prevent corruption and to ensure that candidates are honest and transparent in their financial dealings.

The law applies to all candidates for office, including members of the Legislature, judges, and other public officials.

The law is enforced by the State Election Commission, which has the authority to investigate and prosecute violations of the law.

USE OF ALUMINUM BANNED IN MORE THAN 200 ITEMS

Washington—The use of aluminum in more than 200 non-defense products has been banned.

The action was announced by the National Production Authority (NPA), which said the curtailment was designed to conserve supplies for military needs.

NPA ordered a halt in the use of aluminum, effective April 1, for a long list of manufactured goods ranging from cocktail shakers to automobile hardware and venetian blinds.

NPA simultaneously told aluminum users that still further cutbacks in non-defense production will be stepped on effective June 1.

Today's action does not affect kitchen utensils, such as pots and pans.

RUBBER—In a companion move, the production agency also announced new restrictions on non-essential use of natural rubber.

NPA said its rubber order also provides for a cut in the amount of synthetic rubber earmarked for new automobile tires; and an increase in the amount of so-called "camel back" rubber for recapping old ones.

The rubber situation calls for an 8 per cent reduction in the amount of new rubber available for civilian production during February and March.

The sharp restrictions on aluminum were stepped on, NPA asserted, "to effect the savings needed to meet the increased demands."

Not only did the government cut back on end-use of the metal for civilians, but it ordered aluminum producers and fabricators to accept more defense contracts.

The list of articles in which aluminum is banned includes ashtrays, ice-pails, bicycles, tricycles and other children's toys, cocktail shakers, automobile hardware and trim, cigarette lighters, hair curlers, fenders and kitchen tools, venetian blinds and storm windows, residential-type roofing and household laundry equipment.

The NPA action further limited the use of aluminum by producers during March to 65 percent of the average monthly use during the first six months of 1950.

TWO WEEKS WITH LOVE AT STAR THEATRE NEXT TUES. WED. AND THURS.

Stars, songs, romance, laughs and technical art are the happy ingredients of MGM's latest musical offering, "Two Weeks With Love," at the Star Theatre Tues.-Wed.-Thurs.

The plot centers on a daffy American family of the early 1900's and the hilarious efforts of its eldest daughter to get her man. The daughter is played by Jane Powell, MGM's young singing star, who last starred in "Nancy Goes to Rio." The hero is Ricardo Montalban, who rose to popularity in such previous musicals as "Neptune's Daughter" and "On An Island With You," then turned to dramatic roles in "Raintree" and "Right Cross."

The Papa of the family is Louis Calhern, who has chalked up such recent hits as his role with Lena Turner in "A Life of Her Own," the part of Buffalo Bill in "Anna Get Your Gun" and the dancing grandpa in "Nancy Goes to Rio." Mama is played by the well-known actress Ann Harding, star of innumerable pictures and more recently a prominent figure on the Broadway stage.

In the talented supporting cast are Phyllis Kirk, a stage recruit; the gangling Carleton Carpenter, recently seen with Judy Garland in "Summer Stock"; singing Debbie Reynolds of "Three Little Words"; Clinton Sundberg, last seen in "Duchess of Idaho"; and Gary Gray, the small son of "The Next Voice You Hear."

The picture was directed by Roy Rowland ("The Outriders") and was produced by Jack Cummings ("Three Little Words").

Among the songs in a musical score which highlights many of the Hit Parade melodies of an earlier day are "Destiny Waltz," "A Heart That's Free," "That's How I Need You," "Oceans Roll," "Aba Daba Honey-Moon," "By the Light of the Silvery Moon," "Beautiful Lady," "Row, Row, Row," "A Media Lux" and "My Hero" from "The Chocolate Soldier."

MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE EXTENDED BECAUSE OF WEATHER

"Unusually bad weather which struck our state last week has forced a delay in winding up the March of Dimes Drive," said Dr. Felix J. Underwood, State March of Dimes Chairman. The drive was scheduled to end January 31.

Dr. Underwood appealed to campaign workers to continue their efforts until all phases of the Drive have been successfully concluded. In many communities this will mean extending the Drive for a few days.

Many March of Dimes benefit activities scheduled for last week were postponed and will be re-set when more favorable weather permits. Community workers in many instances have been unable to complete the solicitations.

"We cannot afford to let anything interfere with the success of the March of Dimes," Dr. Underwood continued. "Thousands already crippled from polio are looking to us for continuing treatment. We know, too, that many others will be stricken before this year ends."

Mrs. Theo Tudury, County Campaign Director, wishes to announce the drive will be continued for 12 days. Anyone wishing to send in a contribution that hasn't done so already will still have time.

The bingco scheduled for last Thursday will be held Sunday afternoon at the KC Hall at 2:30 o'clock, sponsored by Knights of Columbus.

RECIPROCAL TRADE

Last week the Administration took it on the chin again when a coalition of Republicans and Democrats wrote three amendments into the Administration Trade Bill extending the Reciprocal Trade Act for another three years in the House. These amendments were all aimed at protecting American industry from ruinous foreign competition in the State Department's trade negotiations with foreign countries.

The so-called "peril point" amendment, sponsored by Pennsylvania's Republican Simpson; the "escape clause" amendment, sponsored by Fair Dealer Bailey, of West Virginia; and the parity amendment, sponsored by New Mexico's Conservative Dempsy, were all adopted by top sided votes. The bill now goes to the Senate. Administration leaders aver that if these amendments are not taken out in the Senate, the President will veto the bill. The so-called "peril point" amendment is the most drastic, and if it remains in the bill, we are convinced that the President will veto it. The Bailey and Dempsy amendments, if permitted to remain in the bill, will, however, go to the Senate without the President's veto.

The parity amendment, which would require that American agricultural and industrial products from ruinous foreign competition. These amendments could be very helpful in protecting such industries as tung and shrimp of our nation.

PARTY LOYALTY AND PATRONAGE
Ever since the 1948 Presidential election there has been a disposition on the part of those now in charge of the Democratic Party to hold a "strong" line on party loyalty. This disposition has been expressed in a number of ways, and in a number of instances it has been expressed in a way that has been very helpful to the party.

RAISES 1820 PRICE

Ovid, N. Y.—Starting April 1, the Ovid Gazette and Independent announces that its subscription price will be $1.82 a year, "strictly in advance."

The reason for this change, the editor says, is that since March 29, 1820, the weekly newspaper's rate has been $2 a year, "strictly in advance." However, after 120 years, rising costs have made it necessary to "reluctantly advance the price," according to Editor S. E. Marshall.

Sea Food Pact Is Planned By State With Other Area

Two significant moves were taken at meetings recently by the Mississippi Sea Food Commission at Biloxi.

An order was adopted authorizing reciprocal fishing agreements with Gulf and other states, which would set uniform fishing regulations and license fees between states signing.

The commission also signed a contract with Heartland Trading Co., New Orleans, for sale of dead reef shell in Mississippi Sound, which shells will bring a revenue of over $50,000 a year to the commission. The contract, for five years, provides a royalty of 10 cents a cubic yard paid to the commission for the dead shells.

The president and secretary of the commission were directed to enter into reciprocal agreement with other states with reference to fishing.

The regular closing of the shrimp season in inside waters will be observed Feb. 15 to April 15, inclusive. No trawls of any description will be allowed to be used only seines less than 50 feet and brill nets.

The shell contract provides that the company will make a complete survey of the sound, showing the location of dead reefs, and submit findings to the sea food commission for approval before dredging work is started.

The commission has authority to prohibit dredging at any point where it believes live oyster reefs might be damaged, and can maintain an inspector on the dredge at all times to measure shell taken and prevent live reef damage.

The contract provides a minimum payment of $10,000 annually, whether or not any dredging is done.

Similar contracts are in effect in the other four Gulf states, with the exception that they carry a $5,000 minimum-payment figure, and the Alabama

PROOF

A picture of a small girl in tears reminds me of the adage. She is crushed because she failed to win a prize in the doll show given by the Children's Aid Society's Sloss Center in New York City. She is only six but it isn't early for her to be trained to fortify herself against similar disappointments in later life.

Friends are like jewels—very valuable, very precious and—very rare. Never mention your own faults—others will do it for you.

An item of interest dated Feb. 3, 1901: "It is reported that General Arthur MacArthur (father of Gen. Douglas MacArthur) in command of the American forces in the Philippines, was recalled." The same chip off the same old block!

To quote William Channing: "It is said how can the laboring man find time for self-culture? I answer, that he who seizes on spare moments, and turns fragments to golden account. A man who follows his calling with industry and spirit, and uses his earnings economically, will always have some portion of the day at command. And it is astonishing how fruitful of improvement a short session becomes, when eagerly seized and faithfully used. It has often been observed that those who have the most time at their disposal, are the least busy."

Elmer Wheeler says, "One of the best success secrets I know is to stop every now and then and examine the excuses we make to ourselves for not succeeding."

Some will say, "My health will not permit it." Mr. Wheeler points out that Nina Wilcox Putnam wrote her first novel after she had been given two years to live.

Alfred Nobel was a semi-invalid from the age of twelve. Chopin created immortal music at a time when his friends referred to him as a "walking corpse."

Is your excuse the time-worn one "I don't have sufficient education?" Thomas Edison had less than four years of formal education. Abraham Lincoln was not a medical physician. The Wright brothers were bicycle mechanics.

Perhaps you will say, "I'm too old." Gladstone's period of my life dates from my sixtieth birthday. Michael Angelo painted his best pictures after he reached 80. Both Lincoln and Henry Ford asserted that they were failures until well into "middle age."

Maybe you're not "smart enough?" Einstein's math teacher called him a "dull one." John Gregg, of shorthand fame was dubbed "the dumb one" by fellow students.

Darwin claimed of himself that he was "a man of below average intelligence."

Boy, this one is a honey! Good thoughts are blessed guests, and should be heartily welcomed, well fed, and much sought after. Like roses, they give out a sweet smell if laid up in the jar of memory.

—Charles Spurgeon, (And Remember—Good words follow.)

The story of Gwendolyn Cafritz, now called the "new No. One Capital Hostess" since Perle Mesta's appointment to Luxembourg, is a fabulous one. Mrs. Cafritz is a native of Budapest, which her looks show. She is slim, attractive, meticulously groomed (and simply) and socially ambitious. Talk of her parties keeps the female contingent supplied with speculations. Her husband is considered the wealthiest man in Washington—a realtor. Their home is a palace—or figuratively—contains a complete night club with an illuminated glass floor. Mrs. Cafritz's forty-one years rest negligibly on her. Her figure is divine. She does all her own menu planning and marketing. She is said never to overdo anything. (a mark of good taste) from her hors d'oeuvre to her costumes. She is described as being very tactless—but, with such a background she can very simply get by with it. When being photographed she seems to take on the role of a poseur—an attitudinizer, affecting a rather arrested smile and an unbecoming bending of the right wrist on one shoulder. On the other hand her only daughter, rather approaching rival, Mrs. Frank Rediker (blood cousin to King Farouk of Egypt) has the calm, dignified bearing of breeding but not nearly so much glamour or style sense.

If you're interested in Mr. Cafritz—he is 57 and has no social ambitions (the usual combination—or vice versa) and it is claimed that his amiable quiet charm is after all partly responsible for his wife's social success. Men like him and liked to go to his home and gradually they became increasingly popular. It is rumored that when Truman was a Senator and Mrs. Cafritz and Perle Mesta were rivals that Mrs. C. snubbed Truman because she never figured he would go far. In fact, my informant goes so far as to state that she has no hope now of winning back Harry's good grace at this late date, but she will make certain she does not make the same mistake twice.

What a superfluous, borsome struggle! Is it worth being a social climber? Try brown sugar and grated lemon rind on your toast sometime when serving tea. Good!

Yep, it has been just like spring the past week... but the weather man says not to be too optimistic, cause we are due for more of that mean winter cold... as we see it, winter is only good for two things... Eskimos and polar bears... we'll take ours in the 80's... according to word from Jackson the State Highway Commission has made application to the Army Corps of Engineers in Mobile for a permit to construct the new bridge... we wonder just how much preliminary procedure there is necessary before construction can actually begin on the new bridge... perhaps the idea behind this stretching out process is to have the bridge completed in time for our grandchildren, and by that time they will have forgotten that we objected to its being moved from its present location... several of the coast garden clubs are considering cancelling the Annual spring pilgrimage because of the damage done to gardens by the severe cold and we think it is a good idea... very few gardens would be worth going far to see at this time... we think it would be a good idea to cancel the whole thing... a press notice says there will be no more $3.00 Louisiana tags sold in other states... we think it pretty cheap for anyone who earns their living and lives here to go to another state to buy an automobile tag just to save a few dollars... they should be stopped... not much time left to sign for your 1951 homestead exemption... better get down to the assessor's office and sign up before time runs out on you... so now we know what the "flying saucers" really are... the Navy announced this week that they are plastic balloons used in high altitude cosmic ray studies.
